Something BIG has happened

ON THE AMERICAN ROAD!

• For 1952, Ford brings you the ablest car on the American road. It meets the widest range of motorists' needs. It does more things for more people at lower cost than any other car—bar none! All this has been made possible by the long-range planning of the largest single engineering department in the industry—planning that has introduced to the American road a new standard of all-round motor car ability —the Ford for '52!

New Automatic Ride Control

Wider Front Tread—Longer Rear Springs

The '52 Ford brings you riding comfort that's new to its field. New rear springs are longer. New rear shock absorbers are diagonally mounted. Front springs are tailored to the weight of each model. The front tread is wider—the center of gravity is lower. These features of Ford's new Automatic Ride Control combine to give you a smooth, level ride whatever the road—and also take the tilt out of turns.

White sidewall tires (if available), two-tone color illustrated optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

Sterling Lindner Davis

Hank Greenberg and Ellis Ryan

Inasmuch as no club can be any stronger than its leadership, the Cleveland Indians of the past two seasons reflect great credit on the men who guide their destinies. During those two campaigns since president Ellis Ryan and general manager Hank Greenberg first teamed up, the Indians have won the fourth and fifth highest total of victories in the team's fifty year history. Only the 1920, 1921 and 1948 clubs could top last summer's figure and that was by the slim maximum of but five games. With Ryan concentrating on policy and Greenburg on playing personnel, the tireless twosome has succeeded in giving Cleveland top drawer baseball competition in pleasant surroundings. So far, the pennant and World Championship have been barely out of reach, but 1952 could well fulfil their hopes and reward their efforts.

HOME FREEZER OWNERS!

...buy choice meats at wholesale prices

If you own a home freezer, you can save up to 20% on your meat bill—and have a good supply of choice meat on hand all the time!

Here's all you do — Phone or stop in our plant and select a wholesale cut of meat, sold at wholesale prices.

What We Do —

Cut it into roasts, steaks, chops . . . whatever size you prefer, according to your exact specifications.
Package the cuts for freezing.
Label each package for clear identification.
Deliver them to your home all ready to store in your home freezer.

We Invite Your Inspection

We think you'll be impressed to see our plant's meat storage and handling facilities—where all our work is done under sanitary refrigerated conditions. All meat is government-inspected, government graded and properly aged. Includes beef, veal, lamb, pork. Also poultry, assorted cold meats and corned beef.
